

The REINHARDTS Missionaries to Chile

Dear Friends,

Bushels of blessings and very busy.

Three weeks ago, Marianela brought her nephew to church. While I was leading the worship portion of the service Marianela literally dragged her 10-year-old up the stairs and sat him in the auditorium. Oh, the poor Sunday school teacher who has to deal with this child, was my thought. After service Carla calls me to my office with the child setting in front of my desk. I imagined the damage he must have done to be speaking with me after the service. Just then Carla whispered in my ear “Nicholas wants to come to Christ!”

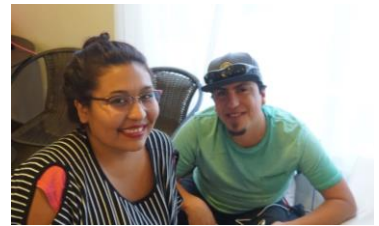

Amaro, an 11-year-old boy who was been faithfully coming for over a year made a decision for salvation. As well as Nataly the mother of a couple kids who came to VBS in February and has faithfully come each week for the last 2 months. I am meeting with her and another lady Cinthia before the Wednesday service to answer non-stop questions about the Bible and life.

March is our back to school month. People return from vacations and get into their routines, so March is also our month to promote faithful attendance. We had 30 children participating in an attendance campaign along with their families. We are starting the school year with church as a family priority.

We also have 6 new families attending: Cleide, her husband Daniel and their 2-year-old son Esteban, Cinthia with her two daughters, Onice with her husband and brother, Dirka came back from Bolivia and is bringing a friend, Karla, Jaime, his wife Soledad and daughter Shirley, and finally, Edel from Colombia with his wife Maria.

For our Easter celebration, we were blessed by the choir of the church in Iquique (Iglesia Biblica Bautista Iquique pastored by my father David Reinhardt). We had over 120 attend our Saturday (Good Friday service) and our resurrection Sunday services.

Another blessing we are experiencing, our church offers guitar and piano classes. We have over 20 people taking these beginners classes, 6 are unchurched visitors. One such man is Aquiles, a Bolivian older man who lost his speech years ago. He is one of the happiest men in our church. Always smiling and enjoying the preaching. We hope to soon see him playing for the services.

The REINHARDTS Missionaries to Chile

I am in discipleship with 3 men. I am hoping to start a team work discipleship program that takes the 14 doctrinal classes and divides them among 5 families that will then teach them to our new believers. This approach will help the new families connect with the core families of our church.

In March, we had our first mission's month as a church. We taught Faith Promise Giving to the congregation and saw a 25% increase above our regular giving promised to missions. This will make it possible to double our support to the missionaries we support in Haiti and Calbuco (South of Chile). We also have raised the support to the work in Copiapo and added a new missionary going to Ecuador (Camilo Enceres). And finally, we are setting money aside for a new work we want to see started in Alto Hospicio this year.

Camp news.

We have finished our well. At 40 feet deep we reached water in the driest desert in the planet. We are very excited to see how God will use this camp. Our next small projects are: making the main gate, a parsonage and additional shade area for eating. Then future projects that include planting trees (that are given free from the ranger station), a chapel, and a multipurpose building.

Prayer update for Sophia.

The specialist in Santiago confirmed that Sofia will definitely need surgery and began treatment preparing for this. We are thankful for having medical insurance through our mission's board. We did spend a lot of money traveling to the capital, renting an apartment for a few days and also a vehicle. But God has provided faithfully! Please pray for Sophia's health.

Thank You for your love, prayers and support!

Process of making the well.
